Indicate the primary disability preventing you from reading regular printed material. See definitions under eligibility criteria. Check only one box.

- Blindness
- Physical handicap
- Deaf-blindness
- Visual Handicap
- Reading disability

In addition to any of the qualifying disabilities above, do you also have a hearing impairment? If yes, indicate the degree of hearing loss.

- Moderate - Some difficulty hearing and understanding speech.
- Profound - Cannot hear or understand speech.

Note: Records relating to recipients of Library of Congress reading materials are covered by the Confidential Nature of Certain Library Records, WV Code 10-1-22.

Eligibility of Blind and Physically Handicapped Persons for Loan of Library Materials:

The following persons are eligible for the National Library Service: Residents of the United States, including territories, insular possessions, the District of Columbia, and American citizens living abroad.

- Blind persons whose visual acuity, as determined by competent authority, is 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses, or whose widest diameter of visual field subtends as an angular distance no greater than 20 degrees.
- Other physically handicapped persons are eligible as follows:
  - (a) Persons whose visual disability, with correction and regardless of optical measurement, is certified by competent authority as preventing the reading of regular printed material.
  - (b) Persons certified by competent authority as unable to read or unable to use regular printed material because of physical limitations.
  - (c) Persons certified by competent authority as having a reading disability resulting from organic dysfunction and of sufficient severity to prevent reading regular printed material in a conventional manner.

Certifying authority:

- In cases of blindness, visual impairment, or physical limitations, "competent authority" includes doctors of medicine; doctors of osteopathy; ophthalmologists; optometrists; registered nurses; therapists; and professional staff of hospitals, institutions, and Public or private welfare agencies (e.g., social workers, case workers, counselors, rehabilitation teachers, and superintendents). In the absence of any of these, certification may be made by professional librarians or by any person whose competence under specific circumstances is acceptable to the Library of Congress.
- In the case of a reading disability from organic dysfunction, competent authority is defined as doctors of medicine and doctors of osteopathy who may consult with colleagues in associated disciplines.

To be completed by Certifying Authority: (Definitions are listed above)

I certify that the named applicant requesting library service is unable to read or use regular printed material for the reason indicated on this form.

Lending of Materials and Classes of Borrowers:

Veterans: According to Public Law 89-522, blind and other physically handicapped persons who have been honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States must receive preference in the lending of books, recordings, playback equipment, musical scores, instructional texts, and other specialized materials.

Institutions: Institutions such as schools, residential care facilities, hospitals, and other establishments regularly attended by blind and/or physically handicapped individuals may borrow special format reading materials and playback equipment solely for the use of persons certified as eligible, who must be the direct and only recipients of the materials and equipment provided by NLS.

Reading Preferences: Check A or B

A.  Do not select books for me. Send only the specific titles that I request.

B.  I wish to have books selected for me.

Note: If you wish to have books selected for you, the library needs information about your reading interests. Please check the types of books or subjects you prefer. You may also write your reading interests in the space provided below.
