

STATE LIBRARY SERVICES

Assisting Public Libraries and State Citizens

RESOURCE DISCUSSED
DURING THIS SESSION
ARE AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING AT THIS URL:

<http://wvlcguides.org/sls>

Contacting Us:

- Phone: (304) 558-2045
- Email: wvlcref@wv.gov
- Facebook: <http://on.fb.me/14nXk4H>
- Twitter: <http://twitter.com/WVLC>

How will this session assist you?

- Increase your ability to answer your community's questions and research needs.
- How to refresh your library's collections.
- How to locate library support materials.
- Additional materials to support active community learning.

Reference Services

- Ready reference question answering by phone or email
- Research guides on topics

Collection Services

- Deposit Collections
 - For additional information, attend the WVLC Deposit Collections session at 3:00 with Megan Tarbett
- eBook and eAudiobook Services
- eReader Assistance—Technology Petting Zoo
- Online Resources
- Interlibrary loan

Library Support Collections

- Professional library support collection
 - How to guides
 - Emerging trends
 - Marketing
 - Social media
- Online Resources
 - Core Collections
 - Library & Information Science Source

Collections for K-12 Students

- Online Resources
 - Encyclopedias
 - Self-contained informational databases
 - eBooks
- Deposit collections to support classroom projects and active learning

Research Guides

- <http://wvlcguides.org>
- Current research guides include the following topics:
 - W. Va. Labor History
 - Marcellus Shale
 - American history and literature
 - Ancient civilizations
- Specific need research guides developed upon request!

Becoming a Card Holder

- Send an email to LeAna.M.Paxson@wv.gov
 - Subject: Library staff request for library card
- Card sent by US Postal Service
- Arrives with two –to-four business days
- Access to State Library Services Databases
- Can interlibrary loan articles from libraries

Question Time

